SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

A few highlights of the week end.

Believe it or not Truckee Sunday had a traffic jam. For several blocks cars were packed on the main thoroughfare while officers labored frantically to break the jam. Observers said it was the largest number of cars ever seen in Truckee at one time.

C. Edmunds wouldn't have the guests of the winter sports park do anything he couldn't and as a result his face and neck are considerably marred with scratches. Fearful the toboggan slide was too icy for the safety of the novices early Sunday morning, Edmunds decided to test it the contraption before turning ie toboggans over to the visitors. Results speak for themselves. The speeding toboggan "flew the track" and was demolished by the winter sports manager's face and chest. The slide was then closed until later in the day, when another trial by the manager proved it safe.

When we report that Truckee had a big crowd Sunday, we are not exaggerating one bit. In several instances, proprietors were forced to lock their doors to give waiters a chance to serve the overcrowded tables before allowing another group to enter. That condition continued all day from early morning until far into the night.

Officers declared that the crowd was unusually orderly, no one in the entire multitude causing even the most remote trouble. And the nice part of it was that everone had a good time, the only complaints being voiced when it was time to depart. Truckee proved itself a good host to a fine bunch of guests and we only regret that each week end can not see such a crowd here.

Residents in the section bordering the winter sports park are noticing a scarcity of ash can covers, shortage of equipment sent the visitors scurrying for any conceivable kind of a sliding apparatus and the ash can covers solved the problem for many.

Unincorporated Area of County To Receive $8000

Return From Alcoholic Tax From State Will Aid District

Unincorporated areas of Nevada County will receive $8,000.19 as their share of the alcoholic beverage licenses collected in 1936, the state board of equalization announced this week.

The distribution is based on 50 per cent of the total alcoholic beverage licenses collected during the calendar year.

"County government may expect to receive their allocations, subject to minor adjustments, early in March," the announcement said. Total collections in the unincorporated are as amounted to $1,170,679.05, of which $585,339.38 will be returned.

The beverage control act also provides that 50 per cent of the earnings from the license fees shall be returned to the communities from which such fees originated. In cities of 20,000 population or over, the collections amounted to $3,193,464.95 for the year. Of this amount, $1,596,732.42 will be returned to the local governments.

Lock Broken From Garage In Second Robbery In Week

After forcing the lock off the door of the Stone Garage, a thief sometime Sunday night or Monday morning, stole a new Oldsmobile sedan belonging to Frank Kinne, Truckee barber, and made his escape.

George Markell, proprietor of the garage, reported that a summary check of other items in the garage revealed that a valuable shotgun and rifle which he had left in the office were missing.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Dolley said a description of the machine had been broadcast over the teletype and that every effort was being made to apprehend the thief.

The robbery was discovered at 4 o'clock Monday morning, Deputy Dolley said, by Frank Holt, foreman on the state highway who went to the garage to get his machine. He found a bar had been used to force the lock off the door and immediately notified Markell.

Taking advantage of the unusually large crowd of people in town, a thief Saturday night or Sunday morning broke into the Truckee Bakery and looted the safe of nearly $100 in cash and several checks made payable to the local establishment.

Clarence Bowers, proprietor of the bakery, said, that when he opened the place early Sunday, he found a rear window broken out and the office ransacked..

Tracks in the snow outside the broken window showed that only one person was involved in the theft and offered officers their only clue. It is believed by Deputy Sheriff Tom Dolley that the robbery was the work of a local thief who was familiar with the structure of the bakery and the habits of the owner.

Following the robbery, the thief made his exit through the broken window.

NEVADA COUNTY TO RECEIVE $1395 FROM FOREST FUND

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—(UP)—California counties located in mountainous and forested areas will have their treasuries enriched by from a few to several hundred dollars as a result of apportionments of federal government reserve receipts.

Each year the federal government returns to the state one-quarter of the receipts collected from forest reserves. The receipts for the year ended June 30, 1936, proved sufficient to permit distribution of $134,142 to the counties with small population, State Controller Harry B. Riley announced.

Counties which receive little in gasoline tax receipts and school apportionments because of scarce population come into their own when forest reserve money is distributed.

In this year's instance, Plumas received the major part of the apportionment, or $26,000. Of the 20 forest reserves in California, the Plumas reserve is the largest. It lies in Butte, Lassen, Plumas, Sierra and Yuba counties and embraces nearly 20,000,000 acres.

Nevada County was allocated the sum of $1395.

Half the money received goes to the schoolh and the other half to the roads.

BIGGEST CROWD SINCE DOG DERBY ASSEMBLES HERE

More Than 3000 Snow Sport Enthusiasts Gather in Truckee

WEATHER WAS IDEAL

Few Accidents Mar Perfect Day for Excursionists On Sunday

The largest crowd that has been in Truckee since the famous Dog Derby, gathered here Saturday, Sunday and Monday to take advantage of the ideal weather conditions to participate in the Winter Sports festivities.

The largest crowd of the three days was recorded Sunday, when every article of winter sports equipment at the pavilion, the scene of most of the activities, had been rented out by 8 a. m.

Cafes and other business houses were taxed to far beyond capacity to care for the wants of the huge crowd and despite the fact that all restaurants and stores had employed additional help, it was almost impossible to serve everyone.

Because of the icy condition of the snow early in the morings, two major and scores of minor mishaps were reported. One San Francisco visitor suffered a fractured leg and an Oakland boy was treated for a broken arm when the toboggan ran off the chute and overturned.

Minor injuries were frequent as skiiers and tobogganists fell into the crusted snow. Every report, however, indicated that the visitors were all well pleased with their outing. Officers declared that the visitors were well behaved and caused no trouble at all.

Among those making the trip by special trains on the Southern Pacific were as follows: Napa Lodge of Elks, 7 cars; Pacific Gas and Electric Company employes, 14 cars; Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company employes, 11 cars; Oakland Trib une newsboys, 9 cars; Norwegian Singers, one car; Murray Travel Service, one car; American Trust Club, 2 cars; Dental Association, one car; University No. 77, Berkeley, 2 cars; Contra Costa Hills Club, two cars; Peck Judah, one car; Stockton Amblers, two cars and California Collegiates, 8 cars.

Most of the 65 cars remained here for the two days, while others were here only Sunday. Specially chartered busses and hundreds of private cars augmented the crowd.

Sunday special busses ran every hour to Lake Tahoe where the visitors enjoyed the beauty of the lake region and watched the championship ski events at Olympic Hill.

WHAT AMERICA NEEDS

More than 700 school supervisors from every section of California met in San Francisco this month and heard a lot about new fangled teaching methods. But the Keynote address, in outlining how our schools may make better men and women of the citizens of tomorrow, dealt with no ultra-modern ideas.

It called for the return of fundamentals.

"Uuless we build ideals of honesty, love anr respect for truth,' said the keynote speaker, "and uless there is a sense of responsibility and respect for law, no system of justice can effectually operate."

Were these ideals more deeply rooted today, a good part of our troubles would vanish. There would be less industrial strife. There would be no kidnappings and lynchings. There would be no loud little groups crying "frameup" when our courts made just convictions, as in the Modesto dynamiting case and other recent instances. There would be no bitter attacks of class on class, no followers for preachers of cureall schemes and foreign "isms".

Plainly, what America needs more than anything else these days are "ideals of honesty, love and respect for truth-a sense of responsibility and respect for law."

LIBERTY WILL PREVAIL

If we take the larger view, the prevalence of dictatorship in Europe is not so alarming as it may seem. To all outward appearances the power of Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin goes about unchallenged, crushing personal liberty, freedom of speech and press and religion.

But underneath it is challenged — seriously challenged.

Today half the population of Germany is described as in a state of secret but strong rebellion against the efforts to deify Hitler. Not only Jew and Catholics — but Protestants, Masons, Veterans, and a host of other groups are united in opposition toi the Nazi rule and regime. And if they are not working openly, they keep alive a network of underground opposition that is as powerful as it is determined.

The peoples of th world have had a taste of democracy and personal liberty, and have found it too sweet to let permanently die. If they are not swayed from it by outbursts of intense nationalism, it is but transitory aberration. The groups who normally are in healthy opposition to each other within a framework of government which guarantees personal liberty eventually unit to defeat any force that attempt to subdue all others.

It may be painful while it lasts. But Hitler will fall — eventually every dictatorship will fall. And ultimately the world will achieve a character of democracy that will never be subject to even temporary impositions of tyranny.

"SIT DOWN" THIS WAY

After 44 days of fruitless fighting, of violence and disruption with an industry, of uncompromising demands and petulant pouting and name-calling on both sides, peace has come to the auto strike front.

And now, while the plants run and the men are busy at their jobs, the disputants are to "sit down" to the conference table and talk things ovr man ti man in a spirit of good will.

This is more like it. This is the kind of "sit down" we need most these days. It is what the American way of settling things should be.

From the start it was clear that this course was the only one. And we may be thankful that the contending factions availed themselves of it before the deadlock developed into a major catastrophe.

But why not sooner? Why can't plants be kept running and men kept at work while the leaders in any dispute thrash out their differences over a conference table? The answer to that is that they can. What we need is mediation machinery to give every possibility of settlement a chance before any strike can take place. Then, without compulsion or arbitration abridgement of the rights of either side, you can be sur that practically no serious strikes will ever take place.

The auto strike settlement has shown that men can compromise, see the other fellow's point of view, and bargain in a spirit of give and take. The job now is to get them to do this before there is violence and idle plants and idle men, rather than after.

Politically Speaking

By GEORGE E. HELMER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Extension of the Donihue assembly committee investigating the affairs of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company may cause the committee to crumple under its own weight, opposing legislators believed.

In looking into state affairs, the committee dealt mostly with politicians, state officials and employes. But when it turned to the insurance company case and issued subpenaes for witnesses, it entered into the realm of important industrial and capitalistic personages and the committee split wide open.

Added to the worry of those committee members who thought it was "silly" to look into a situation that already had been settled in a manner satisfactory to the courts was the opinion of Attorney General U. S. Webb that some of the things Chairman Leon Donihue feared most had no foundation in fact.

Donihue said the investigation into the Pacific Mutual was inspired by the filing of suits and the possibility that the state of California might be held liable since Insurance Commissioner Samuel L. Carpenter, Jr., acted as conservator of the company under the reorganization plan.

Webb believed there was little, if any, likelihood of suits accomplishing anything, and was confident the state would not be held liable in event claims were successful in court. He said the only suit filed was withdrawn recently.

The inquiry into the company's case was started a few days after the committee, in secret meeting with William Moseley Jones, assembly speaker, selected Col. William H. Neblett, law portner of Senator William G. McAdoo, as committee counsel.

Neblett has been outspoken in his opposition to the insurance company's reorganization plan. Donihue insisted, however, that the selection of Neblett had no political significance.

Other members of the committee, while declining to permit use of their names, were not friendly to the Donihue program. One said Donihue aspired to the governorship eventually; to the state board of equalization in the near future.

Donihue, whose home is in Oakland, is a democrat. In the session two years ago, he was one of the more obscure assemblymen. He was interested in a gross transaction act and sometimes figured in the news when the proposal was outlined.

His name became widely known after the session as a result of the legislature, strongly republican at the time, approving an innocent appearing resolution creating an interim committee to investigate state auditing methods.

The inquiry into the auditing swept through the state treasurer's office, the state finance department and into the fields of liquor enforcement, fish and game regulations, horse racing, private use of state automobiles, reported irregularities in the handling of the state expense accounts and other subjects entirely removed from, or at the best only remotely connected with auditing.

While officials admitted that the series of investigations might result in improved operation of certain departments, they wondered how an official audit inquiry might be extended into fields which had no actual connection with auditing.

Donihue indicated he would seek an appropriation of $150,000 to finance continuation of his activity during the next two years. He obtained appropriations totaling $25,000 for the past two. One democratic member of his committee remarked: "If we legislators let him get an appropriation of $150,000, we're saps."

Candid

Latest wrinkle for candid camera fans is shown by Rosalind Keith, of Hollywood, Calif., who had a tiny camera built into her purse so that she could take pictures while pretending to be powdering her nose.

The "mandate of the people", as expressed in the election last November, failed to discourage legislators who sought to regulate chain store organizations, take liquor control out of the hands of the board of equalization, nd enact local option.

Included among the nearly 4,000 bills introduced by the legislator this year were several measures designed to tax or limit business of chain stores; numerous proposals to take all but taxing power away from the equalization board, placing liquor control in the hands of a separate, appointive commission or

Good Lighting starts with Proper Lamp Design

Here is the

1 — Higher standard than the ordinary lamp. 19½ inches from table top to bottom of shade.

2 — What a difference under the shade! The diffusing bowl which eliminates both reflected and direct glare to give light that is soft and glareless.

3 — The shade open at the top and wide at the bottom is the third reason why this revolutionary lamp gives six to ten times as much light as an ordinary lamp.

of a Better Lamp for Better Light

SEE that the lamps you buy for your home are designed to give you abundant light from proper height and distance so that it is easy for your eyes to see quickly and to read without effort.

Note the distinctive features of the Science of Seeing Study Lamp pictured above. They are the tall standard, the diffusing bowl and the special shade wide at the bottom to give much more useful light than ordinary lamps.

There should be at least one of these new lamps in every home. It helps good eyes to keep good eyesight and aids weakened eyes to see more easily.

This Week At The State Capitol

By Jack Welter

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Old age benefits to California pensioners will be handled permanently by O. C. Wyman. Named to act temporarily as administrator of social welfare, Wyman was confirmed as permanent administrator by the state personnel board.

A second reprieve for Alfred Paine and Hugh Smith, awaiting execution at San Quentin Prison for the slaying of Police Chief E. G. Fish of North Sacramento, was granted by Gov. Frank F. Merriam, who postponed the scheduled February 19 hanging until June 25.

Commenting editorially, Editor Charles J. Lilly of the Sacramento Union noted a tendency of the governor, who began his administration in stern fashion, to emulate the late James Rolph, Jr., in issuing reprieves. Lilly wonders whether the uncertainty of a reprieve is not more agonizing to the condemned than proceeding with the execution on schedule.

Soon after March 3, first wheels will turn in actual construction of California's Central Valley water project. On that date, U. S. Reclamation Engineer Walker R. Young begins opening bids on preliminary construction work at Friant where one of the project's two huge dams will be located.

California must retain its sales, liquor and income taxes the California Association of County Assessors is agreed. The association's lawmaking committee, meeting in Sacramento, opposed repeal of the levies; opposed exemption of any assessable property; viewed with disfavor any form of gross receipts tax, and turned thumbs down on proposals for a state board of revenue. The state controller, board of equalization and similar agencies are doing a satisfactory job, the committee agreed.

To keep 300 patrolmen on the highways, 600 men must be retained, Director of Motor Vehicles Ray Ingels informed critics of the state highway patrol who complained that insufficient officers were at work on the state roads.

"Sure, we have 600 employed in the patrol," Ingles said, "but remember that highways must be patrolled 365 days and in eight-hour shifts. Each man is entitled to one day a week rest 15 days a year vacation and 10 days a year sick leave. Numerous patrolmen meet injury and must take time off.

"When all these things are considered it's easy enough to see why we can't have 600 men on the highways day and night."

City Attorney Resignes—

The firm of Jones & Finnegan has been retained as counsel of Nevada City following the resignation of City Attorney W. E. Wright, which was read last Thursday evening. The retiring official said that his private practice demanded all his attention.

MEXICAN DEPORTED AFTER LONG TERM IN STATE PRISON

FOLSOM PRISON, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Folsom Prison's "man without a country," Trinidad Gonzales, 65, finally has realized his desire to be sent to Mexico.

Gonzales, sentenced to prison from Bakersfield for murder 22 years ago, sought deportation to Mexico, but because no record of his Mexican citizenship could be found the state board of prison terms and paroles was refused permission to grant his request. A special dispensation, however, was received recently from Hector Escalona, Mexican counsul at San Francisco, and Gonzales was placed aboard a train for the land he claims as home.

During his 22 years in prison Gonzales acquired a sizeable bankroll by working a small plot of ground inside the walls and selling the crops.

FARM PRODUCTS SHOW 16 PER CENT GAIN IN NATION, REPORT SAYS

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Total farm marketing incomes in the United States showed an increase of 16 per cent in 1936, the United States department of agriculture reported here this week.

Market advances in prices because of the 1936 drought accounted for a great share of the higher return, the government's economic experts said, although heavier marketingg during the first half of the year also had an effect.

Drought Down the House

This is the scene of the wreckage in Los Angeles caused when an automobile skidded into the corner of an apartment house and the house virtually collapsed. Three persons narrowly escaped death in the mishap.

DONNER THEATER BILLS LATEST MAJOR PICTURES FOR TRUCKEE PATRONS

Patrons of the Donner Theater have a rare treat in store, according to the splendid list of pictures on the bill. During next month will be shown such classics as "The Plainsman", "Champagne Waltz" and "One in a Million", all proclamed to be outstanding productions.

During the coming week, Manager V. C. Shattuck has programmed for Saturday "Outcast", starring Warren William, Karen Morley, Lewis Stone and Jackie Moran.

Sunday Edward Arnold will be starred in "John Meade's Woman" and will be supported by Gail Patrick and Francine Larrimore.

Each program also includes a select number of shorts and news.

MANY STATES ARE STILL LACKING ADEQUATE LAWS ON TRAFFIC SAYS SURVEY

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Only 21 state have "fairly standard" regulatory motor traffic laws, declares a recent survey of the accident prevention conference.

The conference, which maintains headquarters in Washington, has been attempting to obtain higher standards in connection with vehicle control throughout the nation.

Their report lists 16 states with "substandard" regulations and 11 states, including Illinois, where there is a tremendous concentration of motor car registration, which do not even have drivers' license laws.

100 MILLION COLLECTED IN TAXES DURING SIX MONTHS BY CALIFORNIA

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—(UP)—California collected $100,000,000 in general fund and gasoline taxes during the last half of 1936 to establish a new high record for revenues, Controller Harry B. Riley reported this week.

The retail sales tax alone brought in nearly $42,000,000. Bank, corporation and insurance company taxes poured more than $11,000,000 into the treasury.

Continuing the upward trend which will enable the state to trim the deficit and come within striking distance of balancing the budget by the end of this biennium, revenues for the seven-month period ending on January 31 showed gains in every instance as compared with returns during the corresponding period a year ago.

EMPLOYERS REQUIRED TO REPORT ALL EMPLOYES REGARDLESS OF NUMBER

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Thousands of California employers, apparently misapprehending registration provisions of the unemployment reserves act, have failed to file their names and the number of employes working for them.

Thi announcement came this week from J. L. Matthews, chairman, following a check of commission files.

"The law specifically requires that every California employer, whether he hires one or one hundred persons must file a report regarding the number o employes with the commission," Matthews statel.

SAFETY COMMISSION FOR CALIFORNIA IS ASKED IN PROPOSED MEASURES

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Several legislators, alarmed by the states's increasing death toll from highway accidents, have introduced measures esigned to provide greater motoring safety.

Among the iedas submitted are proposals for creation of a traffic safety engineering bureau to conduct investigations of accidents to determine precise causes; to study traffic flow and to coordinate and advise upon enforcement regulations concerned with traffic guidance.

One bill proposes that maintenance of this bureau shall be provided from the state's highway fund, approaching $60,000,000, nearly all of which now goes for road building.
